for the registration and the management of the following domain name:

_____ .lu

being warranted by the principal that he/it is the legitimate holder thereof.

1. The principal shall continue to be the exclusive and legitimate holder of the above mentioned domain name, notwithstanding the granting of this power to the agent. The agent may only act by virtue of and within the limits of the present power.
2. This power authorizes the agent to register the above mentioned domain name. The agent will provide the RESTENA Foundation with all information which is required for the registration procedure. The principal undertakes to provide the agent within the shortest possible time with all information which is required for the registration of the domain name. It guarantees the accuracy of this information and it undertakes to notify to the agent any modification to this information within the shortest possible time.

3. The agent has the power to manage the domain name and to inform the RESTENAFoundation within the shortest possible time about any modification to the data of the domain name which is contained in the WHOIS database.
4. The present power does not authorize the agent to apply for the cancellation of the domain name. The cancellation requires a special power of attorney which mentions expressly the domain name to be deleted. The present power does also not authorize the agent to transfer the domain name to another person. The principal must give a special power which has to indicate clearly the domain name which will be transferred.
5. This power may be revoked by notification of a revocation letter to the agent, a copy of which will be provided to the RESTENA Foundation. The power will anyway be terminated once the domain name will be deleted.
6. One set of the present power will be notified to the RESTENA Foundation by the agent.
